

Pedro Tagliani

English version

- 1961 Pedro Tagliani was born in southbrasil and visited in
- 1978 the music school „Escola da Orquestra Sinfônica de Porto Alegre“. Then he deepened his guitar knowledge and studied at the school „Escola do Guitarrista Gaúcho“, where he worked later on as a teacher himself.
- 1980 he became a guitarist and composer of „Raiz de Pedra“, one of the most popular brasil. fusionbands in Brazil, which published in 3 Jahren four Instrumental-CDs: „Trajetória“, „Raiz de Pedra ao vivo“, „Pictures“, „Diário de Bordo“. The last CD was published by the german label Enja Records. On the Album „Diario de Bordo“ arranged and played the worldfamous brazilian pianist Egberto Gismonti 4 titels, 2 of them was composed by Pedro Taglianis.
- 1993 Pedro Tagliani is living in Europe and is active with a lot of projects as guitarist and arranger. He has played in a huge number of CDs and worked together with international well know musicians like Dave Samuels, Wolfgang Lackerschmidt.
- 1998 he began his solocareer with the publishing of his CD „Arvoredo“, which was recorded in Vienna in cooperation of the famous saxplayer Thomas Kugi. During this new segment of his career Pedro Tagliani played beside others on the Guitarfestival of Bad Aibling „Saitensprünge“, in front of Ralph Towner und Oregon & Aquarelas do Brasil & Brazil Connection.

The topical projects in which he works as a Player and Composer :

Dusko Goykovich (Samba Tzigane), Coisa Nostra, Sandra Pires (Destino), Stella Jones , Ahmed el Salamoune & Pedro Tagliani, Sophie Wegener & Zona Sul, Yvonne Sanches, Pedro Tagliani & Christian Gall. Pedro Tagliani Group.

As an endorser he demonstrates beside others on the Exhibition „Frankfurter Musikmesse“ guitars of the company FrameWorks.